VOLUME 168

Indicates original article*

A

A. C. A. RATIO
—importance of the A. C. A. ratio in industrial and social success, 591

ACCOMMODATION
—accommodative response in asymmetric convergence, 435
—ciliary body in accommodation and accommodative convergence, 595

ACETAZOLEAMIDE
—acetazolamide (Diamox) in glaucoma surgery, 832
—carbonic anhydrase inhibitor acetazolamide (Diamox), a new approach to the therapy of glaucoma, 445

ACRODYNIA
—ocular symptoms of acrodynia, 446

ADENOIDECTOMY
—irrigation of nasopharynx after adenoidectomy, 368

ALACRIMA
—congenital alacrima in familial autonomic dysfunction, 603

ALCHEMIST
—physician as alchemist, medical ideas in the Arabian empire, 399*

ALCOHOLISM
treatment:
—use of chlorpromazine in the management of acute and postalcoholic states, 333*

ALLERGY
—allergy as a cause of glaucoma, 601
—management of allergic sinusitis, 741

ALVAREZ, WALTER C.
—biographical note, 673*

AMAUROTIC FAMILIAL IDIOCY
—amaurotic familial idiocy (Tay-Sachs disease) in non-Hebrew siblings, 601
—juvenile amaurotic idiocy in Norway, 443

AMBLYOPIA
—investigation of the nature and cause of impaired acuity in amblyopia, 435
—nature and cause of impaired vision in the amblyopic eye of a squinter, 433 —predicting the success of training amblyopes, 824 toxic:
—tobacco-alcohol (toxic) amblyopia, 443

ANESTHESIA
—congenital atresia of the esophagus, the anesthetic problems, 101
—modern anesthesia in ocular surgery of children, 602
—uses of chlorpromazine in anesthesia and surgery, 340*
curare in:
—curare in ophthalmology, 193
potentiated:
—pharmacodynamic potentiation in ocular surgery, 821*

ANISEIKONIA
—testing aniseikonia with a simplified space eikonometer, 433

ANNOUNCEMENTS
—Symposium on Health and Travel, 377
—Third Annual Antibiotics Symposium, 541
—Third Inter-American Congress of Psychiatry, 734

ANTHRAX
—anthrax, a report of one hundred and fifteen cases, 683

ANTIBIOTICS
—antibiotics in childhood, 507
—antibiotics 1955, a discussion of recent developments, use, and side effects, 449*
—effect of antibiotics on intestinal absorption of vitamin B_{12} in disorders of the gastrointestinal tract, 511 broad-spectrum:
—fortified broad-spectrum antibiotics as an adjunct in surgical treatment of the young and the aged and debilitated patient, 512
—in quest of the broad spectrum, some philosophical perspectives of antibiotics, 103*
—Symposia on new facts and perspectives of broad-spectrum antibiotic therapy, 111*-177,* 207*-270*
therapeutic use:
—"pediatric ear" and antibiotics, 363

ANTICHOLINERGIC DRUGS
—value of an optimal effective dose of anticholinergic drugs in the treatment of peptic ulcer, 510

AQUEOUS HUMOR
—permeability of the blood-aqueous barrier in myopic subjects with chronic glaucoma, 832
—role of aqueous humor cytopathology in differential diagnosis of iridocyclitis, 825

ARABIA
—physician as alchemist, medical ideas in the Arabian empire, 399*

ARTERIOSCLEROSIS
—macula, alteration of the vascular arrangement in arteriosclerosis, 190

temporal:
—temporal arteritis syndrome with ocular involvement, 603

ARTHRITIS
rheumatoid:
—observations on prolonged administration of metacortandracin in rheumatoid arthritis, 682

ASCORBIC ACID—See Vitamin C.

ASTHMA
—cortisone or hydrocortisone in the treatment of severe intractable bronchial asthma, 272

ARTERITIS
temporal:
—temporal arteritis syndrome with ocular involvement, 603

ARTHRITIS
rheumatoid:
—observations on prolonged administration of metacortandracin in rheumatoid arthritis, 682

ASCORBIC ACID—See Vitamin C.

ASTHMA
—cortisone or hydrocortisone in the treatment of severe intractable bronchial asthma, 272

ATHEROSCLEROSIS
—current status of research in metabolic aspects of atherosclerosis, 682
ATOMIC BOMB
—retinal burns, new hazard of the atomic bomb, 834
AUDIOMETRY
—"mixed method" of audiometry, 367
AVIATION—See also Space Flights.
—nutrition and flight, 580
—physiologic day-night cycle after long distance flights, 576

B

BETAINE
—effect of betaine and glycocyamine in the management of chronic anterior poliomyelitis, 70*
BETASYAMINE—See Betaine.
BIOFLAVONOID COMPLEX—See Citrus Bioflavonoid Complex.
BLEPHAROCHALASIS
—correction of upper lid blepharochalasis, 193
BLOOD PRESSURE
high—See Hypertension.
BONE GRAFTS
—use of refrigerated homogenous bone graft for microgenia in the maxillofacial triad, 369
BONES
infection:
—use of oxytetracycline in infections of bones and joints and their soft-tissue coverings, 213*
BOOK REVIEWS
—Anesthesia in ophthalmology, 838
—Clinical manual on aniseikonia, 448
—Differential diagnosis of common diseases of the eyeground, 198
—Fat metabolism, 685
—New approach to optical dispensing, 448
—Travaux d'anatomie pathologique oculaire, 197
—Ultrasonic and ultrashort waves in medicine, 686
BOXING
—prognosis of ocular injuries after boxing, 834
BRAIN
blood vessels:
—cerebral vessels and retinal vessels, 191
diseases:
—disturbances of caloric and optokinetic nystagmus associated with localized lesions of the cerebral hemispheres, 744
BREAST
cancer:
—present status of hormone therapy in gynecologic and breast cancer, 89
BROAD SPECTRUM—See Antibiotics, broad-spectrum.
BRONCHI
obstruction:
—endoscopic observation in various types of bronchial obstruction, 364
BRONCHOSCOPY
—endoscopic observations in various types of bronchial obstruction, 364
—role of triangulation roentgenoscope as a method of guidance in the removal of opaque foreign bodies beyond bronchoscopic vision, 548

C

CANCER
—cancer, prevention and cure (editorial), 43*
—chemotherapy of cancer (editorial), 204*
—oleomargarine and cancer (editorial), 540*
CAPILLARIES
—capillaries in the limelight (editorial), 292*
fragility:
—treatment of capillary fragility with soluble citrus bioflavonoid complex, 66*
CARBETAPENTANE
—clinical data on carbetapentane, 735*
CARBOMYCIN
—carbomycin, 463*
CARDIOSPASM
—cardiospasm, 549
CATARACT
—cataract formation following beta-ray radium therapy, 604 experimental:
—cataracts induced by alloxan diabetes in rats and rabbits, 830
in infants:
—postnatal cataracts in premature infants, report of two cases, 440
lamellar:
—postnatal development of lamellar cataracts in premature infants, 830 surgery:
—plastic lens insertion after cataract extraction, a series of cases and modification of technique, 598
—use of subconjunctival corneo-scleral suture in cataract extraction, 429*
CEREBRAL PALSY
—ocular findings in cerebral palsy, 833
CHEMOTHERAPY
—chemotherapy of cancer (editorial), 204*
—chemotherapy of tuberculosis, 87
—chemotherapy in tuberculosis (editorial), 47*
injuries:
—therapy of chest trauma, 677
CHESTNUT
—treatment of retinal vascular diseases with extracts of the wild chestnut, 606 CHILDREN—See also Infants.
—antibiotics in childhood, 507
—erythromycin-polymyxin ointment in the treatment of pyoderma in children, 78*
—inarticulate child, a problem in diagnosis, 366
—nephrotic syndrome in children, 509
—school lighting and posture, 196
—when children travel, 486*
injuries:
—eye injuries in children, 608
surgery in:
—modern anesthesia in ocular surgery of children, 602
—psychic effect of hospitalization and surgical intervention in children, 102 vision in:

—effect of retrolental fibroplasia in children, 831
—refractive errors in children, 595
—testing the visual acuity of school children, 595
CHINN, HERMAN I.
—biographical note, 12*
CHLORPROMAZINE
—can it be said that chlorpromazine has specific properties? 295*
—pharmacology of chlorpromazine, 301*
therapeutic use:
—chlorpromazine in internal medicine, 312*
—chlorpromazine in the management of acute and postalcoholic states, 333*
—chlorpromazine in psychiatry, 327*
—experience with chlorpromazine in pediatrics, 351*
—neuroleptic effects of chlorpromazine in therapeutics of neuropsychiatry, 318*
—uses of chlorpromazine in anesthesia and surgery, 340*
—value of chlorpromazine in the management of pain, 346*
CHLORPROMAZINE SYMPOSIUM
—Epilogue, 358*
—Symposium on chlorpromazine in clinical medicine, 295*–358*
CHOLESTEATOMA
—primary cholesteatoma of the middle ear, 739
CHORIONEPITHELIOMA
—metastasis of a chorionepithelioma to the choroid, 837
CHORIORETINITIS
—study of the role of toxoplasmosis in adult chorioretinitis, 438
CHOROID
tumors:
—metastasis of a chorionepithelioma to the choroid, 837
CHRISTMAS
—on Christmas and neuroses, 812*
CILIARY BODY
—ciliary body in accommodation and accommodative convergence, 595
CITRUS BIOFLAVONOID COMPLEX
—treatment of capillary fragility with soluble citrus bioflavonoid complex, 66*
CIVILIZATION
—what medicine has contributed to the progress of civilization, 383*
CLEGG, HUGH
—biographical note, 673*
COCHLEA
—cochlear microphonic measurements in experimental occlusion and fenestration, 97
—observations on the circulation in the cochlea, 362
COLOR VISION
—ascorbic acid in the physiology of color vision, 593
—quantitative aspects of an opponent-color theory, brightness, saturation, hue, and color specification, 835
—specifications and calibration of the 1953 edition of the I.S.C.C. color aptitude test, 835
CONJUNCTIVA
—vital staining of conjunctiva and cornea, 594
pemphigus:
—ocular pemphigus, 829
CONJUNCTIVITIS
—conjunctivitis in adenoidal-pharyngeal conjunctival virus infection, 828 vernal:
—treatment of vernal conjunctivitis, 828
CONVERGENCE
—accommodative response in asymmetric convergence, 435
—ciliary body in accommodation and accommodative convergence, 595
CORNEA—See also Keratitis.
—corneal changes after ingestion of sulfathiazole, 602
—dehydrases of the cornea, second and third communication, 593
—preservation of cornea by dehydration, 596
—vital staining of conjunctiva and cornea, 594
conical:
—association of conical cornea and retinosis pigmentosa, 837
dystrophy:
—nutritional dystrophy of the corneal epithelium, 596
herpes:
—statistical data on 426 cases of herpes corneae treated in the Basel Eye Clinic, 829
tumors:
—malignant melanoma of the cornea, 189
ulcer:
—pyocyaneus ulcer, clinical report and experimental investigation, 605
CORNEO-SCLERAL SUTURE
—use of subconjunctival corneo-scleral suture in cataract extraction, 429*
CORONARY ARTERY
—Master two-step test, 679
CORTICOTROPIN
—corticotropin, cortisone, thyroid, testosterone in syphilitic interstitial keratitis, 606
—treatment of herpes zoster ophthalmicus with cortisone or corticotropin, 447
CORTISONE—See also Hydrocortisone.
—corticotropin, cortisone, thyroid, testosterone in syphilitic interstitial keratitis, 606
—cortisone or hydrocortisone in the treatment of severe intractable bronchial asthma, 272
—cortisone in the treatment of the oculomucous membrane (Stevens-Johnson syndrone), 606
—cortisone treatment of sarcoidosis, 88
—hydrogen sulfide eye inflammation, treatment with cortisone, 607
—topical cortisone in the treatment of syphilitic interstitial keratitis, 447
—treatment of herpes zoster ophthalmicus with cortisone or corticotropin, 447

CURARE
—curare in ophthalmology, 193
CYCLIZINE
—cyclizine hydrochloride in the treatment of vertigo, 95
CYCLOFUSIONAL MOVEMENTS
—inducement of cyclofusional movements, 434

D

DEAFNESS—See also Hearing, tests.
—deafness due to rubella, 368
—interrelationship among three tests of non-language intelligence administered to the deaf, 545
—psychogenic deafness, 369
—studies on per-stimulatory adaptation in various groups of deafness, 740 occupational:
—occupational deafness in shipyard and machine shop workers, 93
DERMATOLOGY—See Skin, diseases.
DIABETES MELLITUS
experimental:
—cataract induced by alloxan diabetes in rats and rabbits, 830 —experimental diabetes mellitus and the eye, 446
eyes in:
—contribution to the problem of diabetic retinopathy and insulin treatment (experimental studies), 836
—ocular symptoms in diabetics, 602
—problems of the rutin effect in diabetic retinopathy, 441
—relationship between the severity and care of diabetes mellitus and the incidence of diabetic retinopathy, 194
—retinopathy as part of a diabetic angiopathy, 446
—vascular disturbances in the retina of diabetic patients, 190
DIAMOX—See Acetazoleamide
DIATHERMY
—diathermic treatment of different forms of retinal detachment and results, 190
—diathermy treatment of uveal melanomas, 597
DIHYDROSTREPTOMYCIN—See Streptoduocin.
DISEASE
—footnote to medical history, concerning the article by Hans Selye on "Stress and Disease," 288*
—stress and disease, 277*
DIVERGENCE TESTS
—evaluation of vertical divergence tests on the basis of fixation disparity, 592
DRUGS
—ancient and primitive drugs, 392
DYSOSTOSIS
mandibulofacial:
—mandibulofacial dysostosis and status dysraphicus, 591
DYSTONIA
—pupil in vegetative dystonia, 597

E

EAR
—geriatrics of the ear, nose and throat, 743 external:
—pathologic changes of the skin of the external auditory canal in chronic otitis media and mastoiditis, 365
infections:
—hydrocortisone acetate and neomycin in otic infections, 363
—"pediatric ear" and antibiotics, 363
internal—See Labyrinth.
middle—See also Otitis Media.
middle:
—case for a nitrogen gas secretory function of the epithelial lining of the middle-ear cleft in the production of "air" in the cleft, 545
—neoplasms of the middle ear and mastoid, report of fifty-four cases, 97
—primary cholesteatoma of the middle ear, 739
surgery:
—preservation of hearing in surgery for chronic ear disease, a consideration of factors involved, 96
EDROPHONIUM
—Edrophonium (Tensilon) in diagnosis of ocular myasthenia gravis, 832
EIKONOMETER
—testing aniseikonia with a simplified space eikometer, 433
ENDOLYMPH—See Labyrinth.
EPILEPSY
treatment:
—use of phenurone in epilepsy, analysis of fatal reactions including a case report, 679
ERYTHROMYCIN
—clinical use of erythromycin, 507
—erythromycin-polymyxin ointment in the treatment of pyoderma in children, 78*
—ocular penetration of erythromycin, 447
ESOPHAGUS
atresia:
—congenital atresia of the esophagus, the anesthetic problems, 101 diverticula:
—diverticula of the thoracic esophagus, 100
EYEBALL
—congenital hydrocephalus and hypoplasia of the anterior segment of the eyeball, 591 EYES—See also Vision.
—development of the eye, 824
—heredity and the eye, 185
—late effects of beta radiation on the eye, 837
—numerical evaluation of ocular signs of essential hypertension, 194
diseases:
—Edrophonium (Tensilon) in diagnosis of ocular myasthenia gravis, 832
—experimental diabetes mellitus and the eye, 446
—meteorologic influences on ocular diseases, 445
—ocular findings in cerebral palsy, 833
—ocular manifestations of infectious mononucleosis, 602

—ocular signs in Wernicke's disease, 601
—ocular symptoms of acrodynia, 446
—ocular symptoms in diabetics, 602
—ocular trichinosis, 603
—oculoglandular form of tularemia, 604
—ophthalmological complications of multiple myelomatosis, 604
—temporal arteritis syndrome with ocular involvement, 603
infections:
—incidence of coagulase-positive staphylococci in external ocular infections, 826
—oxytetracycline in ophthalmology, a review of the literature, 257*
injuries:
—eye injuries in children, 608
—hydrogen sulfide eye inflammation, treatment with cortisone, 607
—injuries of the eye, 608
—prognosis of ocular injuries after boxing, 834
—prophylaxis with penicillin in perforating injuries, 608 muscles:
—significance and surgical treatment of congenital ocular palsies, 828
—treatment of paralysis of the extra-ocular muscles, 185
surgery:
—modern anesthesia in ocular surgery of children, 602
—pharmacodynamic potentiation in ocular surgery, 821*

F

FLEMING, (SIR) ALEXANDER —life of Sir Alexander Fleming, 202*
—meaning of greatness, Sir Alexander Fleming, in memoriam, 199*
FLIGHTS—See Aviation, Space Flights.
FOREIGN BODIES
—role of triangulation roentgenoscope as a method of guidance in the removal of opaque foreign bodies beyond bronchoscopic vision, 548
FREUD, SIGMUND
—psychoanalysis and religion, a historical view of Freud, 754*
FUNDUS ocular:
—fundus lesions with disseminated lupus erythematosus, 445

G

GASTRODUODENAL ULCER
—value of an optimal effective dose of anticholinergic drugs in the treatment of peptic ulcer, 510
GASTROINTESTINAL TRACT
diseases:
—effect of antibiotics on intestinal absorption of vitamin B_{12} in disorders of the gastrointestinal tract, 511
GENERAL PRACTICE CLINICS
—history of the International Record of Medicine and General Practice Clinics, 513*
GERIATRICS—See Old Age.
GLARE
—method of measuring veiling glare, 836
GLAUCOMA
—allergy as a cause of glaucoma, 601
—hemorrhagic glaucoma, pathogenesis, clinical significance, and classification, 832
—inflammatory glaucoma after psychic insults, 601
—permeability of the blood-aqueous barrier in myopic subjects with chronic glaucoma, 832
surgery:
—acetazoleamide (Diamox) in glaucoma surgery, 832
treatment:
—carbonic anhydrase inhibitor acetazoleamide (Diamox), a new approach to the therapy of glaucoma, 445
—effect of betaine and glycocyamine in the management of chronic anterior poliomyelitis, 70*
GONORRHEA
female:
—gonorrhea in the female, 272
male:
—gonorrhea in the male, 275
—intramuscular oxytetracycline in the treatment of acute gonorrheal urethritis in the male, 254*
GRANULOMA GANGRAENESCENS
—lethal granuloma of the midline facial tissues, granuloma gangraenescens, 98
GREATNESS
—meaning of greatness, Sir Alexander Fleming, in memoriam, 199*

H

HEALTH AND TRAVEL SYMPOSIUM, 480–505, 520–537, 566–586
—geography, travel, and disease, 566*
—infections and travel, 500*
—new perspectives of health and travel, a summation of the symposium, 583*
—medical problems of space flight, 570*
—nutrition and flight, 580*
—physician as traveler, introduction to the First International Symposium on Health and Travel, 480*
—physiologic day-night cycle after long distance flights, 576*
—sea travel and health, 533*
—stress and travel, 528*
—travel and motion sickness, 523*
—when children travel, 486*
—when people who are not young travel, 496*
—when sick people travel, 520*
HEARING
—preservation of hearing in surgery for chronic ear disease, a consideration of factors involved, 96
tests:
—inarticulate child, a problem in diagnosis, 366
—vocational aptitude test battery for the deaf, 96

HEART DISEASE
—introgenic aspects of cardiovascular disease, 511
—nutrition in congestive heart failure, 181
HEPATITIS viral:
—viral hepatitis (editorial), 731*
HEREDITY
—heredity and the eye, 185
HERPES
—rapid diagnosis of herpetic infections by isolation of virus in tissue culture, 826
—statistical data on 426 cases of herpes corneae treated in the Basel Eye Clinic, 829
—treatment of herpes zoster ophthalmicus with cortisone or corticotropin, 447
HORMONES
—present status of hormone therapy in gynecologic and breast cancer, 89
—rheumatism and hormones (editorial), 49*
HYALURONIC ACID
—three reports on the chemical composition of the fluids of the labyrinth, I. determination of hyaluronic acid in the endolymph, 95
HYDROCEPHALUS
—congenital hydrocephalus and hypoplasia of the anterior segment of the eyeball, 591
HYDROCORTISONE
—cortisone or hydrocortisone in the treatment of severe intractable bronchial asthma, 272
—hydrocortisone acetate and neomycin in otic infections, 363
—nasal hydrocortisone in allergic rhinitis, a controlled study, 271
HYDROGEN SULFIDE
—hydrogen sulfide eye inflammation, treatment with cortisone, 607
HYPERPHORIA
—appearance of hyperphoria immediately following parturition, a case, 593
HYPERTENSION
—concept of hypertension, 680
—hypertensive retinopathy, 603
—numerical evaluation of ocular signs of essential hypertension, 194

I

IDIOCY—See Amaurotic Familial Idiocy.
ILLUMINATION
—effect of veiling luminance upon the apparent brightness of an object, 194
—school lighting and posture, 196
IMAGE PROJECTION
—note on true and false image projection, 434
INDUSTRIAL MEDICINE
—otologic considerations of noise in industry, 544
—system of communication in occupational optometry, 195 INFANTS
—respiratory disturbances in the newborn and young infant, 743
eyes in:
—ocular manifestations in sequestrating inflammations of unerupted teeth in infants, 837
—optic atrophy of the infant following a prepartum hemorrhage, 442
—postnatal cataracts in premature infants, report of two cases, 440
premature—See Prematurity.
INFECTIONS
—infections and travel, 500*
bacterial:
—treatment of bacterial infections with sulfoglycin, 378*
INTELLIGENCE TESTS
—interrelationship among three tests of non-language intelligence administered to the deaf, 545
INTERNATIONAL RECORD OF MEDICINE
—history of the International Record of Medicine and General Practice Clinics, 513*
IRIDOCYCLITIS
—role of aqueous humor cytopathology in differential diagnosis of iridocyclitis, 825
IRIS
cancer:
—metastatic carcinoma of the iris, 439
tumors:
—leiomyoma of the iris, report of a case and review of literature, 830

J

JOINTS
infection:
—use of oxytetracycline in infections of bones and joints and their soft-tissue coverings, 213*
interstitial:
—corticotropin, cortisone, thyroid, testosterone in syphilitic interstitial keratitis, 606
—topical cortisone in the treatment of syphilitic interstitial keratitis, 447
—treatment of interstitial keratitis, 605

K

KERATOCONJUNCTIVITIS
epidemic:
—epidemic keratoconjunctivitis, 436
—present status of epidemic keratoconjunctivitis, 437
KIDNEYS
biopsy:
—needle biopsy of the kidney, 509
KIMMELSTEIL-WILSON SYNDROME
—Kimmelsteil-Wilson syndrome, 539
—management of Kimmelsteil-Wilson syndrome and related conditions, 684

L

LABYRINTH
—capillary areas of the membranous labyrinth, 367
—three reports on the chemical composition of the fluids of the labyrinth, I. determination of hyaluronic acid in the endolymph, 95

surgery:
—labyrinthine surgery in the treatment of Ménière's disease, 739
LARGACTIL—See Chlorpromazine.
LARYNX—See also Vocal Cords.
tumors:
—neurogenic tumors of the larynx, 742
—pleomorphic salivary adenoma ("mixed parotid tumour") of the larynx, 742 LENS
crystalline—See also Cataract.
—biology of the crystalline lens, 440
—new method for fractionation of lens protein, 597 LENSES
—clinical experience with hard resin lenses, 197
contact:
—contact lenses, 186
—design and development of a contact lens for underwater seeing, 186
—new contact and corneal lenses, 186 intraocular:
—plastic lens insertion after cataract extraction, a series of cases and modification of technique, 598
